WordPress development, maintenance, security, speed, migrations and custom builds. If it is not something we do, we will say so and point you somewhere better.

Within one working day. If your site is down right now, use the emergency line instead: that is triaged within the hour, any hour.

Yes. The first conversation is free and there is no obligation after it. We use it to work out whether we are the right people for the job.

Yes, and you should. You get a fixed scope and a fixed price in writing before any work begins, with the timeline and what is excluded stated.
