Questions

What people ask before they start

Something not covered here? Ask us directly and an engineer will answer.

Ask a question (https://codetrappers.com/contact/)

Whatever somebody currently does by hand every day: stock synchronisation with suppliers, routing orders to the right warehouse, fulfilment updates, and the notifications customers chase you for. Those pay for themselves in hours saved rather than in theory.

It stops rather than silently overwriting your catalogue. Validation on the incoming data, a rejection log a person can read, and no automatic price or stock change outside the bounds you set.

Sometimes. A workflow engine such as n8n is a good fit when the process spans several systems. Where the work is entirely inside WooCommerce it is usually cheaper and more reliable to build it into the store than to pay per task forever.
